FARMING ACADEMY

PLAN AHEAD STRENGTHEN YOUR FARM BUSINESS

Farming businesses across Greater Lincolnshire are facing rising costs, changing regulations and increasing pressure to adapt. Planning for the future has never been more important.

The Lincolnshire Farm Accelerator provides practical, fully funded support to help you take a step back, assess where your business is now and identify the right actions for what comes next.

Working with experienced advisers, you will explore ways to improve financial resilience, make better use of your land and assets, and consider new opportunities for diversification.

WHAT YOU'LL ACCESS:

- One to one farm visits with tailored advice
- Practical recommendations to improve financial planning and business performance
- Support to explore diversification, new income streams and alternative uses of land and assets
- Guidance on succession planning and funding opportunities

Designed around the realities of farming today, from seasonal pressures to long term decision making, helping you build a more resilient and sustainable business.
